

Q. No. 2 (i)

Title:- Television Vs Newspaper.

Summary:-

We can read the newspaper at any time of the day. We can also skip the certain aspects of the news in which we are not interested. On the other hand, we have to be ^{present} at a certain place, at a certain time to watch television. It is not that convenient. Television brings laziness in us. The reader of the newspaper needs to be expert in the language to understand it whereas in order to watch television, much mastery of the language is not required because the information is presented in visual and auditory form.

Q. No. 2 (ii) We don't need to be present at a certain place, at a certain time to read the news. If we are busy, we can carry the newspaper with us and read it whenever we are free. We can also omit the certain aspects of the news in which we are not interested. These are the advantages of reading newspaper.

Q. No. 2 (iii) Television has many disadvantages. We have to be present at a certain place at a certain time in order to watch it. So, if we are busy, we will miss the news. Moreover, we cannot also skip a certain piece of news. It is not that convenient. Mastery of the language is not required to watch television because the information is provided in visual and auditory form. We can view the news without any effort so television also brings laziness in us.

Q. No. 2 (iv) Much mastery of the language is not required to watch television because it provides the information in visual and auditory form. On the other hand, the reader of a newspaper needs to be expert in the language to read the newspaper because information is provided in the written form in newspapers.

Q. No. 2 (v) We can view the news on the television with ~~no~~ little or no effort since it provides the information in visual and auditory form. Moreover, mastery of the language is also not needed to understand it. It provides the information in an attractive manner, so people prefer to watch it. In this way, television brings laziness in us because we do not have to make any effort to watch it and understand it.

Q. No. 2 (vi) I prefer reading newspapers because it increases my vocabulary. A wide variety of articles are published in the newspaper. So, it provides me a multi-dimensional analysis of a topic. Moreover, I can also skip the certain aspects of a news, in which I am not interested. So, I prefer reading newspaper.

Q. No. 2 (vii) Synonyms of three words:-

Omit: skip convenient: Easy

leisure: free time, repose time.

Proficient: Expert, master

Q. No. 3 (a)

'Tis a lesson you should heed

Try again;

If at first you don't succeed,

Try again;

Then your courage should appear;

For in you will persevere,

If you will conquer, never fear,

Try again;

Paraphrasing:

The poet W.E. Hickson says that this is a lesson you should pay heed to and listen carefully, that ~~the~~ "try again". You ~~may~~ may fail once or twice but if you keep trying again and again, at last you will succeed. If you remain persistent, your courage will appear, you will not fear and you will conquer the world. You need to try again and again to reach the destination of success.

ii) Paraphrasing: The poet advises the youth to take inspiration from the great and wise people. They ate food from a common plate and used similar knives and forks. The world considers them brave and smart. They were born with ~~not not~~ no more abilities and strengths that every individual is blessed with. So, we should make use of these things and start the journey ~~journey~~ ~~journey~~ ~~journey~~

Q. No. 3 (b)

Theme:

The ~~than~~ theme of the poem is that one must have certain dreams, aims and aspirations ~~in~~ⁱⁿ life and must make efforts to achieve them. Without dreams, the life is just like a broken winged bird or barren field. Life is aimless and meaningless without dreams.

ii) If dreams die, life is just like a broken winged bird that cannot fly. It is just like a barren field. If one doesn't have dreams, he does not have productive, ~~and~~^{and} innovative and motivational thoughts. Life is purposeless and aimless without dreams.

Q. No. 4 (a)

i) The river flows (flow) under the bridge.

ii) I had written (write) the letter before he arrived.

iii) I will not go (not go) out if it rains.

iv) He has been sleeping (sleep) for five hours.

Q. No. 4 (b) ① "My sons, a great treasure lies in the estate and I am about to leave you", said old man.

The old man told his sons that a great ~~to~~ treasure lied in the estate and he was about to leave them.

② "Where is it hidden?", said the sons.

The sons asked where it was hidden.

③ "I'm about to leave you", ~~so~~ said the old man.

The old man told that he was about to leave them.

④ "but you must dig for it"

The old man advised his sons to dig for it.

Q. No. 4 (c)

i) The headmaster wants to speak to you.

(Change into negative)

The headmaster does not want to speak to you.

ii) She left the school last year.

(Change into interrogative)

Did she leave the school last year?

iii) You go into room. (change into imperative)

Go into room.

~~iv)~~

v) Were we listening to the radio all evening? (change into affirmative)

We were listening to the radio all evening.

vi) She seems sad (change into interrogative)

Does she seem sad?

Application:-

Examination Hall,

City ABC.

4th June, 2022

The managing director,

The ABC Firm

City ABC.

Subject: Applying for the post of an accountant.

Respected Sir,

I am writing this application for the post of an accountant in your firm. I was glad to see your advertisement for the job posting in the newspaper because I have all the qualifications that you are seeking. I have four years of working experience as an accountant in the firm LMA. I believe that I can be a good team member of your company. I ~~am~~ will serve your company with honesty and dedication. I have ~~attached~~ attached my CV for more details.

Thanking you in advance for your consideration.

Yours Sincerely,

XYZ.

15
20255540
Q. No. 6 Describe a day at school, using 6 transitional devices.

Last week, we had an annual function at school. I had participated in a play. First of all, I got up at 7'o clock and did breakfast. Meanwhile, my school van reached. I reached school at 8'o clock. Event started at 9'o clock. In the beginning, a student recited few verses of the Quran. Then, a student recited "Naat". Afterwards, the junior section presented a beautiful welcome to the guests. Middle section also performed their plays. Moreover, some students from class 6th gave a tribute to the teachers. Furthermore, ~~the~~ students of senior section also gave the message of patriotism through their drama. At last, the chief guest made a speech and then event ended with the national anthem. In short, it was a wonderful day.

Essay:-

e
"ROLE OF SOCIAL MEDIA IN OUR LIFE"

Nowadays, information and communication technology has become a major part of our lives. The usage of social media in the young generation is at its peak. Teenagers actively participate on the social media platforms.

First of all, we need to understand that what does this word "social media" means? In short, it's certain platforms and applications link people all over the world. We call this as social media. It allows the people all over the world to communicate with each other and share their views and ideas. However, social media has some advantages and disadvantages.

It has some advantages. For example, it keeps us updated about all the recent events and activities. By communicating with the other people, our exposure and our perspective of thinking gets better. We can have discussion and share our views and ideas with anyone. We can video call and talk with our friends and family members living abroad. It also provides us

15
20233540
Q. No. 7 (Page 2/3) Shopping too.

But remember, that a coin always has two sides. There is also a dark reality of this "social media" which we cannot ignore. First of all, cybercrimes have increased. Hacking, stealing passwords, stealing account information, blackmailing etc. These all are the crimes that are nowadays committed through the means of social media. Furthermore, it also affects our Islamic and social values in a bad way. Nowadays, if parents are not supervising their children's activities, they can become addicted to watching unethical material, violence, can become a member of a bad company or commit cybercrimes.

Social media has also affected our social lives. It is a fact that ~~even~~ everyone misses those family trips, parties and get-togethers. People are busy in their work and when they get free time, they start using social media. People living in the same home are ~~are~~ unaware about each other but well aware about the whole world.

A person who uses social media in an excess manner wastes his time. He does not have any productive, innovative or motivational thoughts. ~~But~~ Our Holy Prophet ~~was~~ Hazrat Muhammad (PBUH) said that

Q. No. 7 (Page 3/3) Useless things. So, as a Muslim, we don't have to waste time and have to do Allah's "ibadat" and fulfill our responsibilities.

Ans - Remember that a thing made for the public or social use is not bad. Our use makes it good or bad. We must use ~~every~~ everything in a good way. In a nutshell, social media is not any harmful thing. But if we use it in a bad way, our negative use will make it harmful and ~~danger~~ even dangerous.