- The boy wanted to say something other than, "Thank you, m'am", to Mrs. Luella Bates Washington Jones, but although his lips moved, he couldn't even say that as he turned at the foot of the barren stoop and looked up at the large woman in the door. Then she shut the door.
- This time it was an old man who offered himself for treatment. But the pretended doctor said; "Look here, good people. I shall do my best to cure this case; but remember, if I am so unfortunate as to kill him, I am not to be compelled to dig the man's grave".

Q. 4 Read the following paragraph and answer the questions given at the end:

(08)

A king fell seriously ill and all hopes of his recovery vanished. The more the disease was cured the more it became painful. At last the physicians agreed that this disease cannot be cured except by means of bile of a person endowed with certain qualities. Orders were issued to search for an individual of this kind. A son of a farmer was discovered to possess the qualities mentioned by the doctors. The king summoned the father and mother of the boy, whose consent he got by giving them a huge amount of wealth. The Qazi issued decree to shed the blood of a person for the health of the king. The boy was brought to the altar and executioner was directed to slaughter the boy. When all was ready the boy looked towards the sky and smiled.

Questions:

- What was the cure suggested by the physicians for the ailment of the king?
- How did the king get the consent of parents of the boy?
- Why did the Qazi issue a decree to shed the blood of a boy?
- Why did the boy look towards the sky?
