Q. 4 Read the following paragraph and answer the questions given at the end:

(08)

The Magi, as you know, were wise men – wonderfully wise men – who brought gifts to the newborn Christ-child. They were the first Christmas gifts. Being wise, their gifts were doubtlessly wise ones. And here I have told you the story of two children who were not wise. Each sold the most valuable thing he owned in order to buy a gift for the other. But let me speak the last word to the wise of these days: Of all who give gifts, these two were the wisest. Of all who give and receive gifts, such as they are the most wise. Everywhere they are the wise ones. They are the Magi.

Questions:

- (i) Who were the wise men?
- (ii) Who were the first to give Christmas gifts?
- (iii) Were these two the wisest?
- (iv) Write the main idea of the passage.
